TO THE FARMERS OF THE 8th CONGRESSIONAL DIST., N. C.

OFFICE P. Q. M., 8TH DIST.,
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 5, 1863.

FROM questions which are asked me almost daily, I deem it necessary to make the following notice:

The articles taxable under the "Tax in Kind" Law are—Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Buckwheat, Irish Potatoes, Sweet Potatoes, Beans, Peas, Rice Sugar, cured Hay and Fodder, Molasses made of Cane, (not of Sorghum,) Wool, Ground Peas, Cotton, Tobacco and Bacon.

Farmers are allowed to reserve 50 bushels Sweet Potatoes, 50 bush. Irish Potatoes, 50 bush. Wheat, or 100 bush. Corn, (but not both,) and 20 bush Beans and Peas together.

After taking out the above named reserve, farmers will be required to deliver to my agents the Tenth of all that remains of their this year's production. Should anything have been consumed before delivery of the Tithe, farmers will estimate the amount as nearly as possible and deliver accordingly.

We do not receive PORK, for the very good reason that we can not take care of it, but we require BACON, and ONLY 6 lbs. for every 100 lbs. of Pork Slaughtered.

Depots established as points of delivery and receiving agents are as follows:

Monroe, Union county, H. J. Wolfe, Agent.
Charlotte, Mecklenburg Co., George Cross, Agent.

Brevard's station, Gaston, W A Abernathy, "
Dallas, " J F Pegram, "
Cherryville, " J B Fulton, "

Farmers are hereby notified to deliver at any of the above named Depots, except Hickory Station and China Grove, all their Tithe as soon as convenient, whether the assessment has been made or not. The above named Agents' receipts will be held good by myself. The agents at China Grove and Hickory Station will give notice when they are ready to receive.

Corn and Bacon will be received until the 1st of January, after which time it is to be delivered at the farmer's.

A DEFIANT MEMPHIS WOMAN.—The following communication from a Memphis lady, is clipped from the Bulletin of recent date:

Thanksgiving Day—The President of the United States has set apart to-morrow as a day of thanksgiving for our recent successes. We, in our simplicity, supposed that the loyal people of Memphis would be pleased to participate in such a service, and so suggested. This mere suggestion has called forth the following significant epistle, which we subjoin without comment:

Editor Bulletin: You call attention to Lincoln's appointment of a day of thanksgiving for the successes which have blessed "our cause," and you hope the day will be properly observed. By "our cause" you mean the Union cause.

I wonder how you think the people of Memphis can thank God for the successes of the Union Abolition cause. You pretend to think that a great Union sentiment has sprung up in Memphis, because you say that upwards of eleven thousand persons have taken the oath of allegiance. Let me tell you, if they have taken it, they did not do it of their own free will, and they don't feel bound by it; they had to take it under a military despotism, and don't feel bound to regard any oath forced upon them in that way.

Do you believe that any preacher in Memphis will appoint services in his church at Lincoln's dictation? Let any one dare to try it, and see how his congregation will stand it. They know better. They know full well that the people of Memphis give thanks over Union disasters with sincere hearts, but they don't rejoice at Union victories as they call them. The women of Memphis will stick to the Confederate cause like Ruth clung to her mother in love, and say to it "where thou goest I will go, where thou livest I will live, where thou diest I will die, and there will I be buried."

But where are your great successes! Your own papers say that Lee brought off a train of captured spoils twelve miles long, and that Morgan destroyed seven or ei bt millions of dollars worth before all Ohio and Indiana could stop him. Pretty dear successes, this. Still I won't rejoice over it at Lincoln's dictation. But wait till President Davis' day comes round. Perhaps by that time Meade may get another whipping, and if you don't see rejoicing and thanksgiving, then you may well believe that you and your officious local fail to see half that exists in Memphis. Now you won't publish this, because I don't suit you. You can say the reason is because I don't put my real name to it You can do as you please about it. I choose to sign it

MARY LEE THORNE.

PRAYER AT THE OPENING OF CONGRESS.—Dr. Moore delivered, on the first day of Congress, the following beautiful prayer. The publication of which many members have desired:

Almighty God, we desire in simplicity and devout sincerity to come before thy throne to ask thy blessing upon this Congress here assembled. It has met in a time of trouble and darkness, but thou art a very present help in every time of trouble, and dost cause light to arise out of darkness. We beseech thee then so to bless these members that their hearts may be purified from every unworthy motive, and their minds be enlightened with that clearness of judgment that shall enable them rightly to devise such measures as may be needful to deliver us from some of the calamities now pressing upon us. And grant thy blessing also to each co ordinate branch of authority, to our armies and to our people, that they may patiently bear all their burdens, and unflinchingly go forward through all their trials until it may please thee to restore upon us liberty and independence, peace and prosperity; and then, having served these faithfully in our generation, receive us at last, through sprinkling of blood of atonement, and sanctification of the Holy Spirit, to that general assembly and church of the first born that are united in heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—Late Northern papers say:

The army of the Potomac will be immediately reorganized and made larger and better in every way than it has been at any former period. Its chief command will probably be tendered to either Hooker or Thomas. It is believed that Thomas would prefer remaining where he is. Hooker's reputation, since the battle of Lookout mountain, stands higher than ever. He is considered here, by some folks, as the next commander of the army of the Potomac. The present corps commanders, with one exception, will be relieved.

Reply to W. O. H.

Mr. Editor: In your weekly issue of December 15th, I read a very complicated article, headed Craigsville, Gaston, N. C., in which your correspondent inquires "What has effected the change" [illegible] that, "in the last Presidential election I find there were polled in North [illegible] 96,230 votes—for Breckinridge [illegible] Bell 44,900, for Douglas 2,701, a majority for Breckinridge over all 848."

Now Mr. Editor, I want you to remember that I am no party man, my father was before he died, but at the time of his death, he had quit the Democrats and Whig's foolishness, and had become a [illegible]. So you may see it's not my purpose to create partyism. I simply wish to answer W. O. H., for I know him to be a good man, and when I saw his name to such a communication I was constrained to cry out bully for old captain W. O. H!

I am in no degree inclined to blunt my opinion with his in pollyticks, for he is an old hand, and as for me I know so little about the thing I had to get Walker's old fashioned Dictionary before I could spell the word, and then the arthography looks a little badly. This is, however, my opinion about partyism. No time now to differ, and a bad time to write on so baneful a subject, yet I must coincide with W. O. H. It does seem that the democratic party, (I believe that's its name,) have taken a stand, in line of battle, but contrary to all military rule they are at a "rear open order." I do think some one ought to command close order march"! Any way, she needs something—may be she wants another "drill master."

Your correspondent thinks there is yet factional strife, and so do I. The old party called whigs, that was crucified years ago, claims a resurection, and like one of old they now begin to declare: "I am he that liveth and was dead."

This political world reminds me very much of two old drunk men I once saw try to paddle a boat across a river. They both were trying to gain the same shore, but while one would make a good stroke the other would counteract it. So they went round and round, down and down, until quite exausted in strength they drifted on an old snag, and there I left them. From this I learned that one oar was better than two, unless they acted in co-operation. So I would not fear partyism if I was ever shure we would lodge on an old snag.

If W. O. H., wishes to know what has effected a change in our Executive Department, let him begin his inquiry by asking himself the cause of his flaming partiality toward his own party. 2nd, go to the deserter who has forsaken his regiment, and now in the thicket. 3rdly, ask the speculator. And 4thly inquire of the scarred veterans of our army, and I venture by the time he gets round he will have formed an idea of the cause.

When this war first began, the constant cry was, "let our Congress do something toward a vigorous execution of the war." Now every one at home are inquiring. "Is Congress doing anything with the conscript law"!

Don't you see the point?

He wishes to know if all the democrats have gone to the war and been killed.—This is a part of the cause, but not all. The greater cause is, a fear of having to go. This part, however, I don't intend for your correspondent, for I know him to be a man who has but little fear for bullets. He was my old captain and a good one too.

You must excuse this awkward sheet Mr. Editor for we fellows in these backwoods don't have any hifalooting teachers.

Yours, &c., CAEŸ.

TO DYE SCARLET.—Take one and one-half oz. cochineal, one and one-half oz solution of tin, and one oz. of cream of tartar, and dissolve in a brass kettle, with water sufficient to cover one pound of wool. As soon as dissolved, put in your wool, or woolen hanks, and boil them one hour. Then take out and rinse well in three or four cold, clear waters. After dying the scarlet, the same dye will dye a little more wool a light salmon color.

To Dye Green.—Dissolve one oz. of indigo in six oz. of sulphuric acid, by letting it stand twenty-four hours or longer. Then put this solution in a large iron pot, filled with a strong decoction of red oak and hickory bark, in which has been dissolved half pound of alum. Put in your three pounds of wool, or woolen hanks, and boil three quarters of an hour. Then rinse well in three or four cold, clear waters. After dying your three pounds of wool a deep green, the same dye will dye a little more wool a very light green.

The two above recipes "will do." They are presented to the world by The Countryman's better half, who has dyed in accordance with their directions, beautiful specimens of woolen thread.

Apprentices Wanted.

[illegible] well recommended, may secure a [illegible]tin Office to learn the art and [illegible]ng, complete in every department, by application to the Editor of BULLETIN.

Guard on Trains.

[illegible]pments suggest the propriety of a Provost Guard being placed [illegible]nger trains leaving and [illegible]arlotte to detect frequent [illegible]ing practiced against the Government.

We hope Capt. Mallett will discover the necessity of adopting some such plan for arresting fugitives who are frequently fleeing from conscript officers.

More than One Fool.

A young man, desperately in love with a girl at Stangcho, eagerly sought to marry her, but his proposals were rejected. In consequence of his disappointment, he bought some poison and destroyed himself. The Turkish police instantly arrested the father of the young woman as the cause, by implication, of the young man's death, under the fifth species of homicide; he became, therefore, amenable for the act of suicide. When the case came before the magistrate it was urged literally by the accusers that it he, the accused, had not a daughter, the deceased would not have been disappointed and died. Upon all these counts he was mulcted to pay the price of the young man's life, which was fixed at 80 plastres, which was accordingly exacted.

Why is It?

Editor Charlotte Bulletin:

We would enquire through your columns why it is that men who have been detailed by Confederate authority, are caused to do military duty? We know men in our neighborhood, (one shoemaker and one blacksmith,) who have been detailed, and whom it is almost impossible for the settlement to do without. These men are threatened and forced to go on all scouts that the militia or home guard goes on, notwithstanding they are compelled to work almost day and night all the time they are at home, and that at a fixed price,—at most not more than half what they could get. These men have been so threatened, or forced to go, that they are now at least one month behind with their work—the surrounding country depending on them entirely, they being the only details in the settlement. These men are now forced off to stay three months, it is said. Will some friend tell us what they are detailed for, and what we are to do for shoes or smith work, there being lots of women and children barefooted here?

OUR CRUISERS.—The ship Living Age which has just arrived at Boston, reports having been boarded and bonded by the Confederate steamer Tuscarora, off the Cape of Good Hope. The European Times gives the following as an authentic account of the vessels captured by the Confederate steamer Georgia, now at Cherbourg:

| | Value. |
|---|---|
| Ship Dictator, of N. Y., (burnt) | $ 86,000 |
| Bark Good Hope, Boston, " | 65,000 |
| Ship Geo Griswold, N. Y., bonded | 106,000 |
| Bark J. W. Seaver, | 30,000 |
| Ship Constitution, N. Y., (burnt) | 40,000 |
| Ship City of Bath, of Bath, " | 20,000 |
| Ship Prince of Wales, " (bonded) | 20,000 |
| Ship John Watts, of N. Y., " | 20,000 |
| Ship Gold Hunter, (burnt) | 25,000 |

The Georgia was going into dock at Cherbourg for repairs.

ELOQUENT AND PATRIOTIC SENTIMENTS.—In a communication to the Montgomery Mail, by Hon. John Forsyth, the able and accomplished editor of the Mobile Advertiser & Register, appears the following patriotic sentence which has the ring of the true metal:

"My business, and that of every man who aspires to live and die as he was born—a freeman—is with the present and the future. Patriotism and manhood belong to no particular party. All have their humanly allotted portions of heroes and cowards. This is no time for conservatism. The air is tremulous with sounds, and lurid with the blood and flame of war.—The arbitrament of the sword has been appealed to, and by it we rise or fall, conquer or are defeated, live free or slave. With the despot's foot upon our soil, who talks of conservatism? With the robber and assassin's knife at our throats, who shall talk of conservatism? War! war to the knife and to the hilt, is our duty and our destiny. We must come up to it manfully, else there is nothing for us to [illegible] hoping for, nothing to live [illegible] for. Let us reject with one [illegible] the dastardly refrain of the fashionable [illegible]ity, "When this cruel war is over," and shout the trumpet-toned battle-cry of the Marsellaise:

"Aux Armes! Cueyens Formez vos bataillons marchons! marchons!

CLEBURNE'S VICTORY AT RINGGOLD.—The repulse of the [illegible] by General Cleburne was at Ringgold Gap in Taylor's Ridge, about one mile this side of Ringgold. General Cleburne informs me that the loss of the enemy was fully 2 000, and that his own casualties were very few, his killed being only thirty. Having checked the pursuit of the enemy until our trains could retire, Cleburne followed on, leaving necessarily his killed and twelve of his wounded in the hands of the foe. He captured, as has already been reported, three flags and about three hundred prisoners. According to the report of these prisoners, Generals Grant, Thomas and Hooker were all present at the affair, having come out, doubtless, to witness the humiliation of the Confederates. They discovered, however, that Bragg's army was not the routed and demoralized rabble they had imagined it to be, and consequently they abandoned the pursuit and fell back upon Missionary Ridge. They were not ambuscaded as was at first reported; the fight was an open, stand up affair, in which the enemy had the advantage in numbers and Cleburne in position.—Cor. Savannah Republican.

WHAT A WHITE MAN CAN COME TO.—A gentleman recently from Nashville gives the Atlanta Intelligencer a number of interesting items, among which is the following:

An officer of one of the negro regiments of Lincoln, raised in Nashville, and himself a native and resident of that city, lately called at the residence of a young lady, a former acquaintance of his, in company with two negro officers of his regiment and requested to see her. As might be supposed, she refused to appear and entertain her worthy visitors, and they departed, but not without informing her that a visit from the Provost Marshal would follow if she persisted in refusing to receive the visits of negroes. Whether they carried their threat into execution, or how it terminated, we have not been fully informed.

We mention the above incident to call the attention of our people to what they might expect should the enemy overrun Georgia.—Macon Confederate.

FROM CHARLESTON.—The Northern papers have considerable correspondence from Charleston.

Of military operations there is nothing extraordinary to report. Gen. Gilmore is engaged in strengthening his batteries on Morris' Island, and keeps up just sufficient fire upon the enemy's works to maintain his gunners in practice.

The terror in Charleston resulting from the bombardment is wide spread. Business men and residents were retreating beyond the range of our guns.

The sale at auction of South Carolina lands for the payment of direct taxes was held on the 14th instant, at Beaufort, and the Government was the chief purchaser.

☞ A story is current among the Chinese of a great drinker, who was able to sit all day at the table, and after consuming what would have been sufficient to drive the reason out of half a dozen men, would rise up perfectly sober. The Emperor, hearing the fame of this deep drinker, asked him to dinner, that he might test his marvellous powers. As the story goes, the Emperor had ordered a hollow figure to be cast in bronze, of the exact size and model of this man and as the wine was served, for each cup that the guest drank a similar one was poured into the opening on the top of the head of the image. This went on for some hours, until the bronze statue overflowed, while the guest continued at the table and rose from it perfectly sober.

The London Post argues that the North can never obtain men sufficient to preserve federal conquests. An army was needed two years since to seize New Orleans, but an army is just as much required to day to retain it in possession. An expedition was necessary months ago to operate on the Mississippi, but it is equally needed at the present moment to prevent Vicksburg and Port Hudson from again falling into Confederate hands.

Peanuts, and Bene, and the Castor Oil Plant—all yielding valuable and useful oils—can be easily cultivated in the South almost anywhere; sharks, sturgeons, catfish, and other fishes yielding good oils for many purposes, can also be caught in many places. Do our people prefer always to depend on blockade running for all necessaries?

CHANGES IN N. C. TROOPS.—Col. John S. McElroy, 16th Regiment N. C. Troops, has resigned on account of wounds received in the battle of Chancellorsville.

Col. John A. McDowell, 1st Regt. N. C. Troops, has resigned.

Col. R. C. Hill of the 48th Regt. N. C. Troops, died at his residence in Iredell county on the 5th inst.—Raleigh Progress.

The Examiner is pleased to learn that on the 1st instant, one Yankee gunboat was blown up in the neighborhood of West Point, on the York river, and another seriously injured. All the crew of the first boat are said to have perished. We have been unable to learn the names of the boats.—Raleigh Progress.

A sentimental young lady in Northern Georgia indited the following to some of her admirers in the—Ridgeamont:

'Tis hard for youens to sleep in camp;
'Tis hard for youens to fight;
'Tis hard for youens thro' snow to tramp;
In snow to sleep at night;
But harder for weans from youens to part,
Since youens have stolen weans hart.

FROM CHARLESTON

CHARLESTON Dec 29.

Six shells were thrown into the city last night.

Early this morning several Yankee barges were discovered within two hundred yards of Fort Sumter, taking soundings, and protected by four monitors, our batteries and gunboats opened heavily upon them, when the barges left.

There is nothing of importance to-day, there has been no firing on the part of the enemy. Our batteries have kept up a slow fire on the enemy's working parties

The fleet remains in about the usual positions.

FROM ORANGE, C. H., VA.

ORANGE, C. H., Dec. 22.

Quiet reigns supreme on the Rapidan. The enemy have sent off another corps of infantry, making two now wintering behind the Rappahannock and three this side of that river. Meade's headquarters are at Brandy Station. Warrenton is occupied by a brigade of the enemy's cavalry. The enemy are hugging the railroad closely.

The weather is cloudy and threatening snow.

FROM THE WEST.

BRISTOL, Dec. 22.

Our latest advices from the front represent our troops a few miles beyond Bean's Station, and active operations confined to the cavalry, who are skirmishing with the enemy beyond Rogersville. Numerous reports are to the effect that the main body of the enemy has gone to Clinton, Tenn.

Indications are unfavorable to the continuation of hostilities during the winter months.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Dec. 23

Forty thousand claims of widows and orphans, &c., for pay of deceased soldiers, are now on file in the office of the second auditor. They are coming in at the rate of two hundred per day, and with the force now employed in the office they are only able to adjust from fifty to sixty per day, from this it will be seen that years must elapse before the claims can be adjusted.

The widows and orphans are needing the small amounts due them and the bill now pending before Congress will take all those claims out of the office of the auditer, and establish a separate beaureau, where the work can be more rapidly pushed forward.

FROM MOBILE.

MOBILE, Dec. 22.

Capt. Gerard, chief of ordnance, and Gen. Garner, who escaped from New Orleans on the 10th, confirms the report of the mutiny at Fort Jackson. Three gunboats and two transports were sent down at 10, a. m. The gunboats went to Fort Pike this afternoon, and they heard heavy firing in that direction. The partisans burned two schooners, which were transporting cattle to Bayou Macomb, near Manchay. Three picketts on the road reported that Taylor whipped Franklin on the 11th of this month, at Red River driving him to the gunboats, and on the 12th he shelled Baton Rouge.

Letters from prisoners on Johnston's Island say that they are on less than half rations. Col. Miles, Capt Hewitt, adjutant Miles and Ligon want to escape.—The True Delta extra, in the account of the mutiny, says that it is suppressed

The Advertiser & Register has a special correspondence from Oxford of the 22nd, which says that the Chicago Times has dates of the 16th from Cairo and the 12th from Arkansas. The accounts say that Price with five thousand men, was crossing Red River into Texas. Marmanduke is endeavoring to join him. The Federals are in pursuit. New Orlean's advices via Memphis say that an arrival from Vera Cruz confirms the capture of Puebla by the Mexicans, but it is generally in possession of guerrillas.

French supplies can only be carried by a heavy escort.

WRITING INK!

PREPARED BY

J. E. BRITTON,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE subscriber is manufacturing at Charlotte, N. C. an article of superior to any that has yet been offered to the Southern public.

This INK is of a Blue-Black color, and will not mould or thicken, nor will it corrode a steel pen.

Tests having been made with this Ink, both in the sun and in water, and they have proven such, that the subscriber feels confident in offering it to dealers as a superior article. The sun will not deface its color, but gives to it a brighter one, and by putting the manuscript written with it in water it will give it a deeper blue-black color.

It will be found that it will not run, and parts written with it becoming wet will not be injured or defaced in the least

It is purely a chemicle article, and those procuring this Ink will get an article that time will not deface, but which will give it, instead, a more permanent and lasting quality.

Manuscripts written thirteen years ago, (and which have been exposed to the sun and air since that time,) with Ink manufactured from this receipt, are as bright and as good to-day as when first written.

Dealers will be supplied on as liberal terms as possible.

This Ink can be found for retail at the Daily Bulletin office, where the subscriber will be pleased to wait upon patrons. Enquire for BRITTON'S BLUE-BLACK WRITING FLUID.

Wholesale orders are solicited, and all of them will be promptly filled

PROSPECTUS

THE undersigned, will issue, in a few weeks, at Richmond, Va., a weekly journal, to be called "THE SOUTHERN PUNCH!"

It will be nearly a duplicate in size, form and general features of the world renowned London "Punch," so long an acknowledged power in the British Isles in the reformation of public abuses, and the enlightenment of the public mind, flashing as it did with the genius of Hood, of Jarold, and a host of wits, poets, and philosophic thinkers.

The proprietors of "THE SOUTHERN PUNCH" bring to the difficult task of successfully conducting such a journal the advantage of capital, abundant mental resources, and pratical skill. ## BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, a number of public meetings have recently been held in various portions of the State, in some of which threats have been made of combined resistance to the execution of the laws of Congress, in regard to conscription and the collection of taxes, thereby endangering the public peace and tranquility as well as the common cause of independence, which we have so solemnly engaged to defend: And whereas, it is my sworn duty to see all the laws of the land faithfully executed, and quiet and order maintained within our borders,

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my Proclamation, commanding all such persons to renounce such evil intentions, and warning them to beware of the criminal and fatal consequences of carrying such threats into execution.

The inalienable and invaluable right of the people to assemble together and consult for the common good, together with its necessary concomitants, the freedom of speech and the press, are secured to you, my countrymen, by the most sacred compacts. They shall never find a disturber in me. Yet you will remember that the same instruments which guarantee these great rights, also limit you to the exercise of them, within the bounds of law, and impose upon me the solemn duty of seeing that these bounds be not transgressed — The Constitution of the Confederate States, and all laws passed in pursuance thereof, are the supreme law of the land; resistance to them by combination is treason, and without combination, is a high crime against the laws of your country. Let no one be deceived. So long as these laws remain upon the statue book they shall be executed. Surely, my countrymen, you would not seek to cure the evils of one revolution by plunging the country into another. You will not knowingly, to the present desolating war with the common enemy, add horrors of internal strife and entire subversion of law and civil authority. You must not forget the enviable character which you have always maintained, as a sober, conservative and law-abiding people; nor would I have you to forget the plain, easy and constitutional method of redressing your grievances. Meet and denounce any existing laws, if you think proper—you have that right—and instruct your representatives in Congress or the State Legislature, as the case may be, to repeal them. Your own chosen servants made those obnoxious laws—they can repeal them, if such are your instructions. If you regard them as unconstitutional, our Supreme Court sits ready to decide upon all cases properly brought before it. Its decisions are final in the State of North Carolina, and shall be executed while the power remains in your Executive to enforce any law made, but can be most beneficially effected in the way our farthers marked out by the ballot-box, and the other constitutionally appointed means. In times of great public sensibility like the present, any departure from this legal channel is revolutionary and dangerous, and tends to the division and destruction of our people.

It is my great desire, and, I hope, that of all good citizens, that our people should remain united, befall us what may. Should we triumph in the great struggle for independence, let no feelings of revenge, no bitterness, mar the rejoicing of that glorious day. Should we fail, and come short of that great object for which we have struggled so long and bled so freely, let not our strifes and domestic feuds add to the bitterness of defeat,

Attempt suddenly to change the existing order of things would only result in bloodshed and ruin. I therefore implore you, my countrymen, of all shades of political opinion, to abstain from assembling together for the purpose of denouncing each other, whether at home or in the army, and to avoid seeking any remedy for the evils of the times by other than legal means and through the properly constituted authorities. We are embarked in the holiest of all causes which can stir the hearts of patriots—the cause of liberty and independence. We are committed to it By every tie that can bind and honorable people. Multitudes of our bravest and best have already sealed it with their blood, whilst others, giving up all earthly possessions, are either languishing in dungeons or are homeless wandering through the land, and all have felt, in a greater or less degree, the iron hand of war. A great and glorious nation is struggling to be born and wondering kingdoms and distant empires are stilled with listening hope and admiration, watching this greatest of human events. Let them not, I pray you, be shocked with the spectacle of domestic strife and petty, malignant feuds. Let not our enemy be rejoiced to behold our strong arms and stronger devotion which have often made him tremble, turned against ourselves. Let us rather show that the God of Liberty is in His Holy Temple—the hearts of freemen—and bid all the petty bickering of earth keep silence before Him.

Instead or engaging in this unholy and unpatriotic strife and threatening to resist the laws of the land and endangering the peace of society, let us prepare diligently and with hopeful hearts for the hardships and sufferings of the coming winter.—Heaven has blessed us with abundant crops, but thousands of our poor are unable to purchase. Let us begin in time and use every effort to provide for them and secure them against suffering. And let us exert ourselves to the utmost to return to duty the many brave but misguided men who have left their country's flag in the hour of danger, and God will yet bless us and our children, and our children's children will thank us fo not despairing of the Republic in its darkest hours of disaster, and still more for adhering to and preserving, amid the fiery trials of war, conservative sentiments and the rights and civil liberties of the young Confederacy.

In witness thereof, ZEBULON B. [L. S.] VANCE, our Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Raleigh, this 7th day of September, A. D. 1863, and in the year of American Independence the 88th.

Z. B. VANCE.
